CPD Overview

Langley is a UK based leader in roofing and waterproofing systems, working with clients in various sectors including housing, education and commercial. By supplying world class roofing products and managing installations via our industry leading contractor network, it takes a responsive and personable approach to providing high performance, long lasting roofing systems. Langley supplies an extensive range of waterproofing membranes, insulation and accessories, offering a professional service that is second to none in the UK waterproofing industry. One of the many benefits of working with Langley is its end-to-end approach to every project it undertakes. By trusting a single source to handle every aspect from initial consultations and design, through to final installation and after sales care and maintenance, you can be sure of a seamless operation and a successful outcome every time.
