

E K McQuade

28 Marshalsea Road, London
www.ekmcquade.com
Tel: +44 0203 4880 516
enquiries@ekmcquade.com

Available CPD Material (1)

Multiple formats

The Party Wall Act for Architects

Introduction to the The Party Wall Act (what is it? and where does it apply?)

What is a Party Wall

What are the different Party Wall Notices and when must they be served.

Who are the Surveyors involved in the process and what is their role?

The Key documents and their purpose

Key Timescales

Important considerations for Architects - Temporary Works, Structural Design, "Special Foundation" and Security for Expenses.

Tips on "suitable" and "non suitable" construction detailing

What can architects do to minimise the Party Wall Fees and timescales/delays

Top Tips for Architects for facilitating the Party Wall process at early design stage.

Material type:

Online Learning, Seminar

RIBA Core Curriculum:

Legal, regulatory and statutory compliance
Places, planning and communities
Procurement and contracts

Knowledge level:

Detailed Knowledge

Classifications

Subject/Product Areas (CI/SfB)

Structure

External walls > Advisory organisations

RIBA Core Curriculum areas

Legal, regulatory and statutory compliance

Knowledge level: Detailed Knowledge

Places, planning and communities

Knowledge level: Detailed Knowledge

Procurement and contracts

Knowledge level: Detailed Knowledge